Should Be Limited A Brief History of A Life

A Brief History of A Life My mother-in-law Carol passed away last night. She thought she had a cold and found out she had cancer. She was 87. She was born in Oklahoma in 1932, the only daughter of a rancher who settled in the area when it only had a train depot and a general store. She could tell you when they got plumbing and when they had to add on to the house because she was the only girl
